

WEBS Spring Sessions 2018
Mondays from 9:30-11:30 am March 12 – May 21

The mission of WEBS: Women's Ecumenical Bible Study's mission is to build connections; as we explore God's story, we share our stories. WEBS offers Seekers and Christians, who enjoy the perspectives of other women, a safe, engaging environment to nurture their faith through Bible Study and in relationship. WEBS provides both a spiritual and scholarly environment in which each woman can live her own spiritual journey in community.

WEBS participants expressed an interest in learning about the faith traditions within Christendom. This Spring of 2018 we are excited to continue meeting Mondays, from 9:30 AM – 11:00 AM, March 12th - April 30th for Richard J. Foster's Streams of Living Water: Celebrating the Great Traditions of Christian Faith and May 7th – May 21st for Richard Rohr's The Divine Dance: The Trinity and Your Transformation.

WEBS participants are also invited to attend two local retreats if interested:

- June 1-3, at The Potosi Cabin, Pony, MT, Invitation of the Spirit, with the Reverends Valerie Webster & Janis Hansen, inspired by both WEBS book study books. Friday 06/01 5 pm – Sunday 06/03 12 noon. ... Offered again at Camp Marshall, Polson, on Flathead Lake, September 4-6. Cost is approx. $120 for space & food. Reservations required.
- August 1, 10 AM – 2:30 PM, Longview Cabin, at the Elkhorn Ranch, with Reverends Valerie Webster & Miriam Schmidt. No cost; bring a salad offering to share. First 40 to RSVP to Pastor Valerie are welcome.
